

CARING

Caring for the walls of our kitchen
Caring for light
Caring for he, caring for she
Caring for the garden
Caring for the flowers of the garden
Caring for goats cows hens and cats
Caring for love
Caring for the stones of the bread-oven
Caring for the stones of my mother's grave
Caring for the dead
Caring for words
Caring for my paint brushes
Caring for my figures and landscapes
Caring for the landscape
Caring for trees
Caring for their fruits
Caring for their wood
And for their heat
Caring for the sheets of our bed
Caring for clothes and the children
Caring for each friend
Caring for almost nothing
Caring for the suffering
For those in Palestine and next door

Against despair
Caring for candles
Caring for sun after rain after sun
Caring for my shoes
Caring for what I see
Caring for caring
For the one to come
